"Reality Bites: The dichotomy that isn't"

Jim Johnson

January 12

"Forgiveness : freeing ourselves from the past"

Rev. Mimi Bush

This is the 5th "pillar" in The Book of Joy - conversations with Desmond Tutu and the Dalai Lama. Perhaps early in the New Year we can still consider starting again with forgiveness as a quality of living joyfully as we free ourselves as well as others from the hurt and failure we and they have done.

January 19

"The Spiritual Secularity of Martin Luther King, Jr."

Rev. Hal Porter

We will look at themes in our present election: democratic socialism, progressives, liberals, and how they fit in with the secular government of the USA.

Choir Sunday

3rd Sunday Collection is for Fountain Street Choice Fund

January 26

"Moment in Time"

Rebecca St. Clair

Searching for 'truth and meaning'? Aren't we all? What happens when a fellow seeker finds... us? Can we be true to the deep meaning of Unitarian Universalism?"

President's Note

Dear Harbor Family,

This month we will gather together to celebrate and dedicate the long awaited platform lift. This project has been years in the making and we did it! Now we need to take the next step to make the building accessible by completing the work that will make the upstairs bathroom fully accessible.

We had hoped to have enough funds remaining from the initial project to reframe the bathroom door and properly outfit the bathroom but unfortunately that is not the case.

This means that we will need to dig down deep one more time to finish what we have begun. The gathering planned for January 25th will be a celebration but it will also be a fundraiser to help us take that final step.

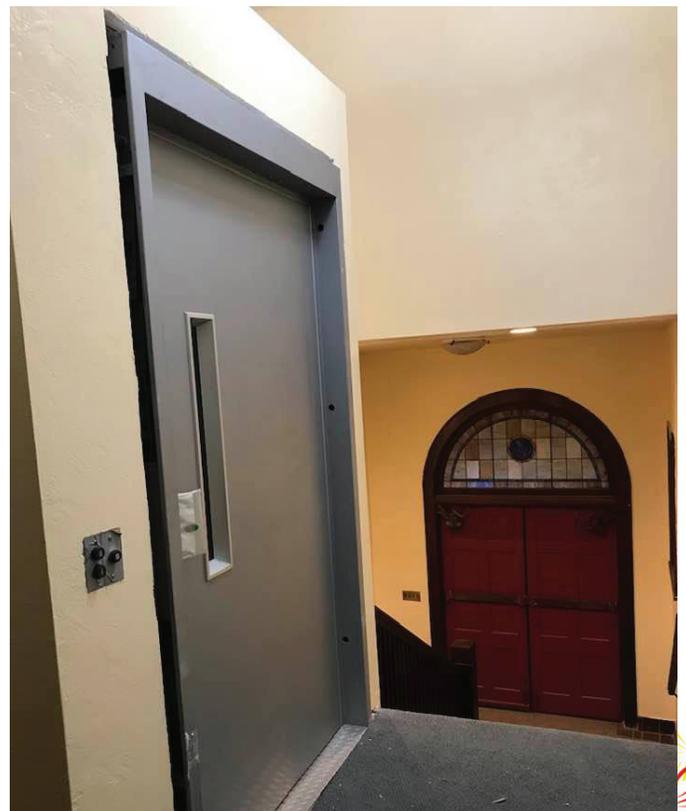

I hope to see you there, In Peace,
