"Waist Deep in the Big Muddy" Rev. Fred Wooden We live in interesting times, which is said to be a curse. Whether that's true or not, we have a lot on our plates right now. A story from my earliest years came to mind as I contemplated this message, which evoked a later memory of a song by Pete Seeger, which is the title of this message. Let's see what both the story and song have to teach us.

Note from the Board

It is hard to believe that this month marks one year since we have been together in our beautiful building. What a year it has been! I am proud of the fact that we were able to transition to a virtual platform so quickly and I know the change has not been easy for many. I miss our building and I miss sharing physical space with you all. I also miss those who have not made the transition to meeting virtually and am looking forward to a time that we can safely return home together. Please know that the board is working to bring us back into our sanctuary as soon as possible and that as soon as the weather allows we will be planning outdoor activities to help bridge the gap. Until then, stay safe and know you are loved.

> In Peace, Rebecca StClair HUUC Board Trustee

Greetings, everyone, from your Harbor UU Endowment Committee!

Although we're a little behind schedule this year, not even all the trials of 2020 have kept us from the very rewarding work of awarding grants in support of our congregation's mission of safe space, inspiration, truth-seeking, worship, learning, and building together.

This year we awarded a total of $6468 to seven grant recipients, which included an award for each of the seven applications we received. We also welcomed our newest committee member, Nancy Steir, who replaces Sue McIntire. We hope Sue enjoys a well-earned break after her years of outstanding service!

You can learn about our endowment and how it works at <harboruu.org/interests/ endowment/>. If you have further questions, comments, or interest in participating, please email endowment@harboruu.org

Please submit information for the March Newsletter by Monday, March 29th to Jessica at gingermajick@hotmail.com • text or call 231.206.4947

UU CLIMATE ACTION NETWORK

Dear UU Climate Action Network Members,

I am excited to announce that one month from now, on March 20, the UUA Green Sanctuary Program and UU Ministry for Earth are co-hosting the Whole Earth, Whole Church Congregational Climate Convergence directly following the Spring Equinox Worship and Opening Ceremony for the 2021 Spring for Change - A Season of Sacred Activism. Please forward this information to your congregation's climate team and leadership and start assembling your cohort to attend together!

In faith, Aly Tharp Program Director, UU Ministry for Earth Create Climate Justice manager, UUA Organizing Strategy Team

WHOLE EARTH, WHOLE CHURCH CONGREGATIONAL CLIMATE CONVERGENCE

Whole Earth, Whole Church Congregational Climate Convergence 11am-2pm PT / 12-3 MT / 1-4 CT / 2-5 ET

Calling all congregations committed to climate justice! This program, offered by the UUA Green Sanctuary Program & UU Ministry for Earth, is designed for congregational leaders to attend together to inspire and support congregational climate action. Ministers, religious educators, and lay leaders are encouraged to attend in teams of two to five people, but individual participants are welcome. Sign up below!

The Whole Earth, Whole Church Congregational Climate Convergence will begin with a session of inspirational grounding and a shared sense of the urgent need for this work, followed by a plenary session presented by Green Sanctuary 2030: Mobilizing for Climate Justice. This program provides a roadmap for congregations to really engage with climate activism and will focus on tools to build capacity for environmental justice work. Green Sanctuary 2030 will share inspiring stories of partnerships with frontline groups who are battling environmental injustices and new resources that can be useful for everyone, even congregations who were previously accredited or who choose not to pursue accreditation.

After the presentation we will offer place-based, congregational role-based, as well as BIPOC and Young Adult small breakout group sessions where participants will be invited to envision what transformative climate work would look like for them, followed by mixed listening circles where people can learn from each other's experience and vision. The final piece is a guided debriefing for congregational teams where you plan next steps and identify how UU Ministry for Earth and/or Green Sanctuary can help your group move forward.

Everyone who is concerned about the greatest physical, moral and spiritual challenge of our time is encouraged to attend whether or not your congregation is already involved.
