Public Comment/Staff Update

Sue

Service Auction/Game Night planned for Saturday, Nov 5th, 7pm

Barb

No Report

Matthew

Workshop on size dynamics

Boundaries, leadership, financials, conflict management

3hrs on Oct 23rd, potluck lunch

Attendance seems to be up for services, attendance doing well for workshops

If anyone sees a need for pastoral care, please bring it up so it can be addressed

Poppy will add caring committee training and formal supports to next meeting agenda

Committee Reports

Finance

Numbers are looking good at the moment, increase in pledges and collections

Canvassing donors worked well

City of the dead brought in more than budgeted (Great!)

Worship

Worship committee is planning to recruit, thinks we should have a committee fair

Could do this every Sunday for a month

Could have a tie in to a Sermon

Point person to write up blurb about their committee

What is it? What's the commitment? How many people would be ideal?

Sound (Jones), Worship (Carolyn), Space/grace (Jim), Membership/Caring (Sue),
RE/Family Support (Poppy), Social Action (Kwame)

Highlight one per month

The ask could be like a one month free trial of being on the committee

Launch at service auction (Committee Fair), Monthly Spotlights during services

Space and Grace

Lift is down again,

Roof over kitchen is fixed

Ended up costing more than expected, will consume most of space and grace budget

Dishwasher is having issues Jim can't replicate

Membership and Caring

Pathways to membership class coming up in November

3 Meetings, 6 NOV, 20 NOV, 11 DEC

City of the Dead

Very successful year, over $3k in revenue

Half the cast is not affiliated with HUUC

CotD is considering splitting proceeds for future years, choosing where funds get donated

Cast would like to see more participation from HUUC congregation

Would like to use the building 1400-1700 Sunday NOV 6th

Jones Motion, Jim Second, Unanimous Approval

Rebecca motion to approve up to $250 for CotD cast party

Poppy willing to help with picking up food/supplies

Business

Safe return to church
